

HPAlumni Flash! Retiree Fairs - LinkedIn Email Problem - A Famous Memo - More

You may get identical copies via LinkedIn and Yahoo. Just delete the extras. All sent Oct 11.

Retiree Enrollment Fairs start Wed Oct 12. Palo Alto, Corvallis, Roseville, Ft. Collins, Boise, San Diego, Andover. Details: <http://www.hpalumni.org/AnnualFair>

LinkedIn: Check for defunct email addresses -- former employers, old email services -- in several places on your LinkedIn account. Otherwise, LinkedIn may send useful emails -- for things you specifically signed up for -- to your old address. (For example, if now at HPE, check for @hp.com in multiple places.) <http://www.hpalumni.org/LinkedIn>

Career: "Hiring managers share their sincere reasons to insist you work in the office -- and a few tips for how you might convince them otherwise." <http://www.hpalumni.org/z123>

"Medicare Explained -- with Heads Up Warnings." Plus "Medicare for HP Retirees." <http://www.hpalumni.org/medicare>

Local Retiree Clubs. (Membership: 10 years or more at HP; $10-$15/year.)

- Houston - Oct 25. Volunteer at Houston Food Bank; then luncheon. phlin70@yahoo.com
- Southern CA - Beach Happy Hour: <http://www.hprcsc.org/events.html>
- Oregon - Camping; Luncheon: <http://www.hpretirees.org/hpreco/activities.php>
- Bay Area - Hiking; Golf; Bowling: <http://www.hpretirees.org/hprec>

Lessons for today from HP history.

From: David Packard

Date: March 20, 1973

I have looked over some of the Model 3000 literature. I hope you will impress upon all hands that we are not to publish any literature in the future until and unless we have actually demonstrated that we can do what we say we can do.
